

Down

- 1. reliable information channel
- 2. false or inaccurate information, especially that which is deliberately intended to deceive.
- 3. facts provided or learned about something or someone.
- 6. a printed publication
- 9. false information which is intended to mislead, especially propaganda issued by a government organization to a rival power or the media.

Across

- 4. true information
- 5. is the technology of signaling and communicating using radio waves.
- 7. casual or unconstrained conversation or reports about other people, typically involving details that are not confirmed as being true.
- 8. wide web, an information system on the Internet which allows documents to be connected to other documents by hypertext links, enabling the user to search for information by moving from one document to another.
- 10. information channels

